STATEMENT OF CONDUCT

As a contestant in the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant, I understand that should I win the coveted title, I will be the Plainville Saddle Club and rodeo's official representative, presenting the sport of rodeo in its true light, to the general public, I would represent unexcelled sportsmanship, high moral and ethical character and a reflection of America's colorful past while supporting careful and humane treatment of animals. That in doing so, I understand the sport of rodeo in its entirety, enough to be able to sell rodeo to someone I might come into contact with who knew nothing of rodeo, by being able to speak intelligently, with dignity, and show my sincere interest in rodeo.

Also I realize that the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant is not a beauty contest, but a combination of attributes which when manifested properly by me make one beautiful. Therefore, it is up to me whether I am considered in the proper category. That I understand to project the proper image of Miss Rodeo Plainville, official rodeo representative, I desire that I am in the public eye. I agree as Miss Rodeo Plainville to strive to improve my riding and horsemanship abilities, as I realize the importance of being skilled aids in my promotion of the sport of rodeo, and to help prepare me for my future endeavors. In doing so, I agree that my mode of dress at all times would be western, as I would wear my Miss Rodeo Plainville banner and crown anytime that I am fulfilling my capacity of Miss Rodeo Plainville. That by doing so I realize that I automatically introduce myself to the public and am always ready to be photographed and give interviews which could aid my promotion of the sport of rodeo.

I understand that should I become Miss Rodeo Plainville, I will attend the rodeos designated to me by the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant Committee. I realize that by traveling to rodeos and meeting as many people as possible will help prepare me as a candidate for Miss Rodeo Kansas should I decide to accept the challenge of running at the state level. I understand that I am expected to attend any function, rodeo or activity that the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant Committee sets for me.

I also agree that should I become Miss Rodeo Plainville, I will uphold my title, fulfill my reign, encourage other girls to enter future pageants, help attain sponsorships for the Pageant and return the next year to complete my reign and act as hostess to the contestants in the next year's pageant and help conduct the pageant in any way I can. I also, agree not to marry or have ever been married or not to have a child or never been pregnant during the term of my reign.

If for any circumstance I am unable to fulfill my obligation, I agree to return any awards and make compensation for any monetary awards, which I received and the title and the awards will be given to the 1st Runner-Up.

I also agree that as a contestant in the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant that no matter the outcome I will not pursue legal action toward the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant Committee, pageant sponsors, or any corporate or private person or persons connected to the Pageant. I understand that if I do not comply with the above stated that I forfeiture my rights to participate in any future pageants or being on the Committee for the Miss Rodeo Plainville Pageant.

I have read the above statement carefully and fully understand and I agree to abide therein.
